

“With this scholarship, I was finally able to buy my own clarinet. Now I know I can fulfill my dreams, and I’m eager to help other young musicians do the same. Someday, I, too, will provide a student with hope.”

Young Artist

“For me, this scholarship represents hope.”

Do you know an excellent student musician who needs a new instrument but can’t afford one? How about tuition for music camp or airfare to auditions?

From the Top, the non-profit known for its hit NPR and PBS programs featuring America’s best young classical musicians, is accepting applications for $10,000 scholarships.

The Jack Kent Cooke Young Artist Award provides 25 students aged 8-18 with:

- A $10,000 scholarship
- A performance on From the Top
- Cultural Leadership training

Applicants must be pre-college classical musicians who have demonstrated a high level of musical achievement and financial need.

Download an application at fromthetop.org.

Application Deadlines: Sept. 1, Nov. 1, and Jan. 31. High school seniors apply by Nov. 1.
